

Name:
Standard	Proficient	Not Yet	Unsatisfactory
1. Can identify the sources of "old science" and the sources of "new science."
2. Can explain how the scientific method and heliocentric model of the earth influenced Europe.
3. Can describe Hobbes' view of a "Social Contract"
4. Can explain the governments responsibility to the people, according to Locke.
5. Can explain Montesquieu's idea of "separation of powers"
6. Can explain how the new views on politics influenced the relationship between ruler and his subjects
7. Can describe the political causes and consequences of the French Revolution
8. Can describe the economic causes and consequences of the French Revolution
9. Can describe the social causes and consequences of the French Revolution
10. Can compare the American Revolution to the French Revolution, using political, social, or economic causes and consequences
11. Can compare the Haitian Revolution to the French Revolution, using political, social, or economic causes and consequences
12. Can explain Napoleon's positive and negative influence on the French Revolution
13. Explain how the Congress of Vienna was a reaction to Napoleon's influence over Europe				