Literature's Place
C.E. 3.2.5

Using the text from this trimester, answer the following three questions. You need to reference at least three specific elements from the text read in each of the three questions. You may reference other texts you have read in addition to those covered in class.

1. How does literature affect your life?
2. How does literature connect you to the world around you?
3. How does literature communicate across time?
