January 13, 2023

From Mrs. Martin

We've been back at school for two full weeks. We've seen 50 degree weather and we've seen 30. Not sure if it's winter or spring, but we love seeing the sun peak through the clouds. It has been so nice having students back in the building. They truly do bring all of us such joy.

January is one of our longer months. We work hard and we play hard. From winter testing to the hopes of a sledding hill soon, we hit 2023 running! We hope you enjoy this edition of our Sandyview Newsletter. Check out all that's been happening!

Reading Assembly

Author Tami Corbett shared her story Chickenbit is Brave. It was so neat to see students engage with the book.

Preschool Egg Drop

Humpty Dumpty Sat on a Wall. Humpty Dumpty Had a Great Fall.

Our 3-year old preschools have been reading and singing the Humpty Dumpty rhyme. What a great time to test out some eggs! Were they able to put them back together again?

Sledding Hill/Winter Gear

January was off to a slow start with 50 degree weather, but winter will be in full swing soon and kids love the snow hill!

Please remember to send your child with the following winter gear:
